Bill Selvey Retires from Board

Alpha II, Inc. would like to announce the retirement of Bill Selvey from the Board of Directors effective May 2008. Bill served on the Board of Directors for 12 years and held the position of Treasurer.

“Bill was a model board member” says Glenn Scott, CEO of Alpha II, Inc. “He personally delivered the signed checks every week. He was a good steady voice and he has always supported Alpha II, Inc.”

In honor of Bill Selvey, the organization has renamed the Volunteer of the Year Award after him. As of July 2008, it will be called the Bill Selvey Volunteer of the Year Award.

Bill Selvey was a tremendous asset to the organization. His support and efforts will greatly be missed. The organization would like to thank him for his 12 years of outstanding service to Alpha II, Inc.
